PARKING LOT SANCTUARY (PLS)

A Homeless Assistance Resource Team Program

Visit hartstogether.org for more information

The Parking Lot Sanctuary is a no-fee nightly program at local houses of worship that offer respite to homeless families living in their cars in the North Sacramento area.

- Duration: December 2019-February 2020.
- Host site provides a hot dinner, fellowship, activities, and safe place to park.
- Volunteer Training Provided: Guest registration, screening, overnight procedures.
- Houses of worship, civic leaders, Police/Sheriff's departments, Sacramento Self Help Housing, social services, and many volunteers make PLS possible.

Many Hands Help Provide Refuge & Safety

1) HART Volunteers: 2-3 Hour Commitment Once a Week

- A. Intake Team: Register guests. 3:00–5:30pm.
- B. Check-In Team: 5:30–6:00pm.

2) Host Site: Provides Parking Space and Volunteers for One Week (Sun-Thurs)

- A. Parking Space: 5:30pm-7:00am. As few as one. As many as volunteers and space can accommodate.
- B. Hospitality, Hot Meal, Breakfast (optional, to-go). Guests receive a warm welcome, fellowship, and activities for children and their parents.
- C. Host Volunteers
 1. On-Site Volunteer Leader (4:00-9:00pm): Serves as point of contact between Host Site and HART volunteers to ensure a smoothly run program.
 2. Meal Team (4:00–8:00 pm): Provide a hot meal for guests & volunteers.
 3. Overnight Teams (7:00pm-7:00am). Volunteers can spend the night in shifts.
- D. Training. Provided for Host Site coordinators and volunteers.

3) Community Support

Members of the community can volunteer to assist any Host Site that needs support. Example: Two churches can join forces to split a week or provide volunteers.

4) Organization or Business Support

Civic organizations or business volunteer teams are welcome to assist as Meal Teams or Overnight Teams OR...make a donation.
